

There were no conflicts of interests reported by the authors of the following guidelines

[1] Guidelines for aetiological investigation into severe to profound bilateral permanent childhood hearing impairment April 2015

[2] Guidelines for aetiological investigation into mild to moderate bilateral permanent childhood hearing impairment April 2015

[3] Guidelines for aetiological investigation into unilateral permanent childhood hearing impairment April 2015

[4] Aetiological investigations into sensorineural hearing loss in adults. Produced by the British Association of Audiovestibular Physicians (BAAP) 2015

Further details about the conflicts of interests are available on request from the Chairman of the Clinical Standards Subcommittee